Country & Equestrian

FOX MEADOW Lodkin Hill

Much sought seldom found! Rare opportunity to purchase 6 acres (#TBV) of pastureland with private stable yard including 3 loose boxes, tack room and store room situated in a beautiful rural location within the Surrey Hills offering fantastic off road riding and country walks on the doorstep. It is rare that a 'one off' plot like this comes up for sale in this idyllic location and will definitely appeal to those with equestrian interests such as a local person wanting to acquire nearby grazing and stabling or those wanting to purchase a suitable location to take their horses on 'short term holidays'. The whole is also perfect for those keen to buy their own piece of land offering 'a get away from it all' destination for occasional camping and caravanning or as a pension investment. The stables are of timber construction under a pitched roof (overall footprint 15 metres x 8.4 metres) with covered concrete yard area to the front. There is no power which to site which could be rectified through installing a generator or solar power option and the vendor is liaising with the local water company to get the provision of mains water to the location. N.B. this utility will be included in the sale. The pasture is currently laid out as one parcel of land but could easily be divided into paddocks either by stock fencing or electric post and wire. For day to day schooling there is an option to rent a nearby riding arena in hacking distance. (N.B. There maybe possibilities to install a riding arena at the location subject to planning permissions).eip
