Situation

Found to the north west of Diss the property is found upon a small and attractive no through close surrounded by similar properties predominantly on larger than average plots. Appletree Lane borders Diss/Roydon and is within walking distance of not only the town centre but also the open rural countryside. The historic market town of Diss is situated on the south Norfolk borders within the beautiful countryside surrounding the Waveney Valley, the town offers an extensive and diverse range of many day to day amenities and facilities along with the benefit of a mainline railway station with regular/direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.

Description

The property comprises of a two bedroom semi-detached house having been built in the 1990s by Messr Wilcon Homes and of traditional brick and block cavity wall construction under a pitched interlocking tiled roof and heated by a gas fired combination boiler via radiators. Throughout the property is presented in an excellent decorative order having been well maintained and cared for. Notice is drawn to the rear of the property by way of having a proper conservatory extension giving additional versatile living space.

Externally

The property is approached via a brick weave driveway leading up to the house and attached garage (measuring 16' 10" x 8' 2" (5.14m x 2.49m) with up and over door to front, power/light connected, storage space within eaves and personnel door to rear giving access onto the rear gardens). The main gardens are found to the rear and greatly enjoy a south westerly aspect taking in all of the afternoon and evening sun. The gardens are predominantly laid to lawn with a paved patio area abutting the rear of the property creating an excellent space for alfresco dining. The gardens are enclosed by concrete posts and panel fencing enjoying a good deal of privacy/seclusion within.
