Zetland House is a unique and striking property, situated in the heart of Shoreditch. The building was originally a Print Works for The Bank of England printing banknotes, stamps and bonds. More recently it was a home for street artist and screen printer Banksy. This warehouse office situated on the third floor of this converted Victorian warehouse building and has an abundance of character including original sash windows, timbers floors, exposed brickwork and excellent floor to ceiling heights. The floor benefits from an open plan layout with kitchenette in situ.
