Description

The versatile floor plan is set over four floors with rooms that include a large cellar, living room, dining room, breakfast room, utility room, cloakroom and fitted kitchen. The first floor has four double bedrooms and a bathroom, the top floor has two further bedrooms and ample eaves storage space.

Outside

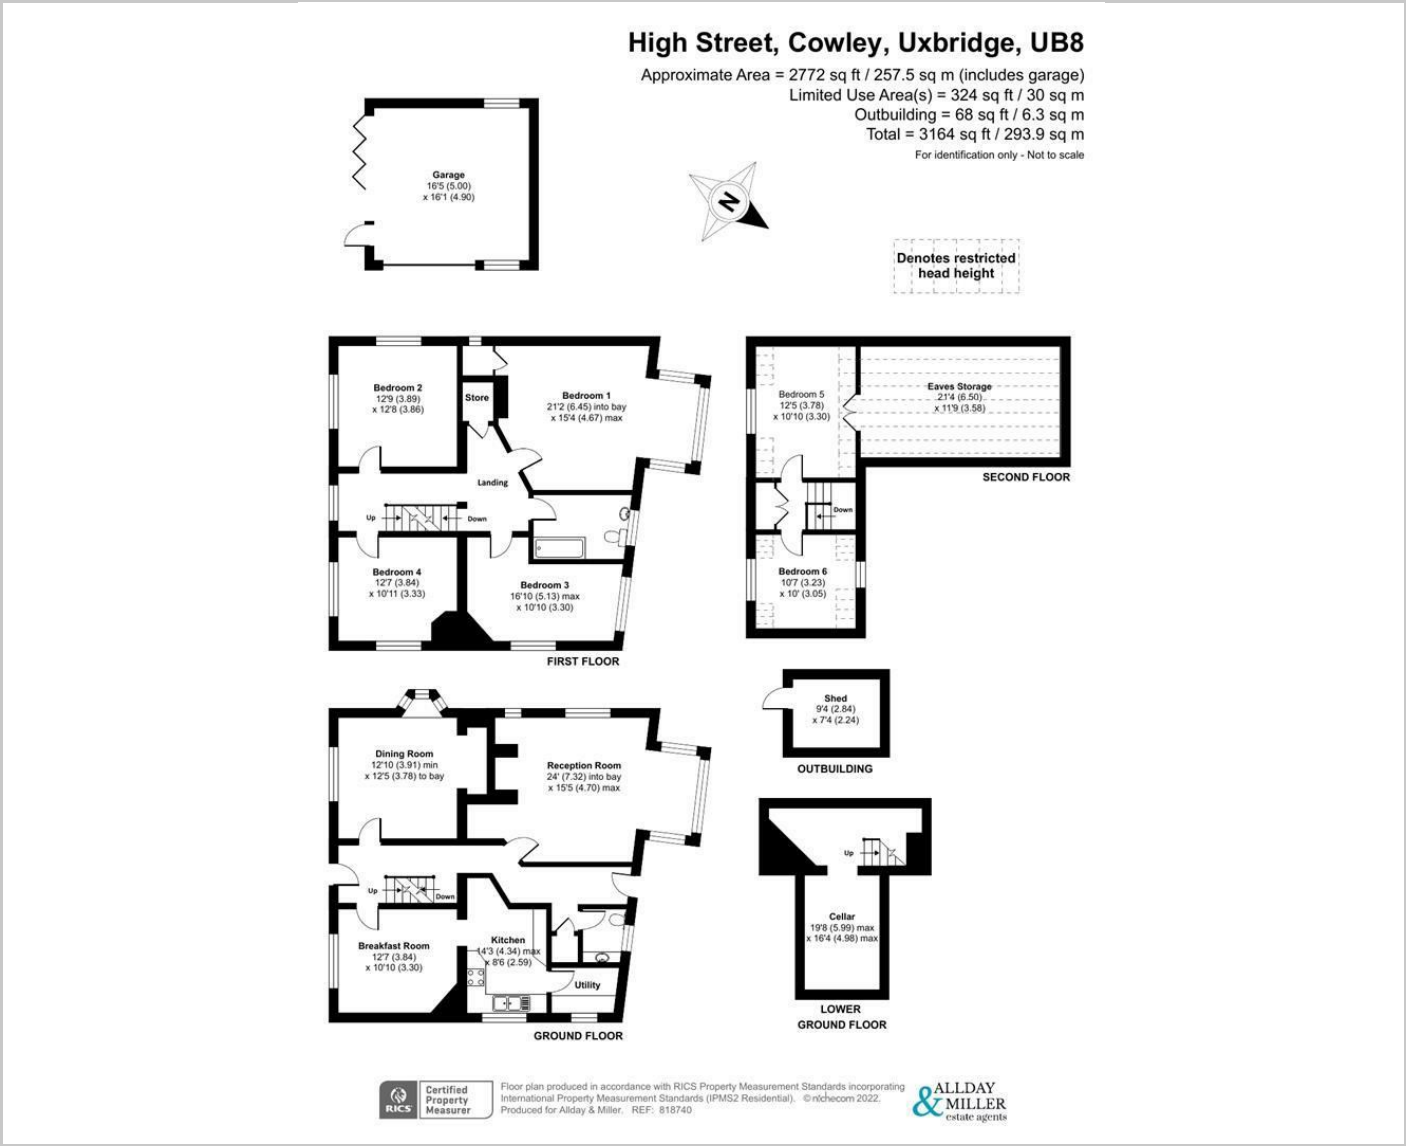

Delightful rear gardens surrounding the property to three sides. A large gated driveway offers parking for four cars and leads to a double garage, with light and power under a tiled roof. The gardens are secluded and benefit from mature trees and shrubs to the walled borders. A side access gate leads through to a further area of pathway to the front of the property and a further area of bedding and mature trees

Situation

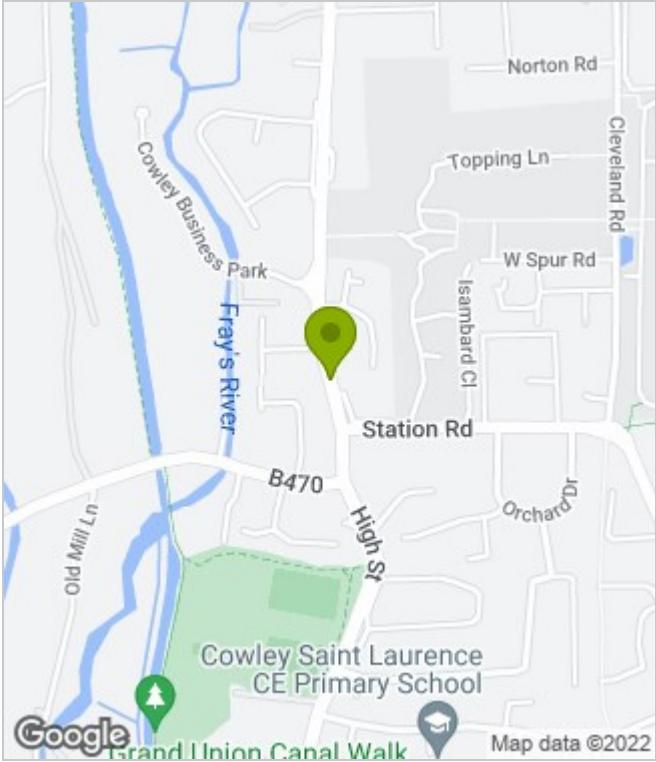

The property is situated on the High Street in Cowley, within easy reach of local shops, schools, Brunel University and bus links to West Drayton Train Station, Stockley Business Park, Heathrow Airport, Uxbridge College, Hillingdon Hospital and Uxbridge Town Centre.
