Description.

Located in the town centre, yet tucked away from the hustle and bustle is a split level one bedroom flat in an old historic Grade II Listed building with plenty of character throughout. The property is part of a conversion of similar properties in a former brewery and has the added benefit of an allocated parking space. On the doorstep are shops, cafes, restaurants and pubs, and the mainline rail station is just a few minutes walk.

The accommodation in this one-off property consists of communal security entry system, stairs to first floor, open plan kitchen/dining/living room with Juliet balcony, stairs from the hall to second floor, bedroom with built-in wardrobes and Juliet balcony, and smart bathroom with raised ceilings giving a lovely sense of space. Benefits include Share of Freehold with over 980 years remaining on the lease, double glazing and gas fired central heating.

Location:

The pretty market town of Newbury offers a wide range of shopping facilities including a twice weekly local market, pedestrianised high street with local and national retail stores and major grocery outlets. There is a variety of cafes, restaurants and bars, a multi-screen cinema and the historic Corn Exchange theatre. Newbury also has a mainline train station with services direct to Reading and London Paddington.
