SITUATION

The approach is over a long, attractive, private, shared tarmac and stone driveway which runs mainly through attractive wooded grounds. Forming part of an impressive range of traditional stone barns at Carthew Farm, Bee Bole Barn stands at the head of a picturesque valley and enjoys landscape views to the south.

The property is well positioned to access St Austell, about 3 miles, and also the A30(T) at Innis Downs Roundabout about 5 miles to the north.

DESCRIPTION

Bee Bole Barn presents to the open market a most attractive attached single storey residence, which is currently in the process of being converted to present a wonderful home that will nicely blend quality living standards with the original character of the barn. Indeed, Bee Bole Barn is Listed Grade II as a Building of Special Architectural or Historic Interest and of particular note are the original and fine example of bee boles on the south-eastern elevation which remain in situ.

The attached floor plan shows the accommodation layout. The barn is being converted to a high standard and will include the installation of a wood-burner within the Living Room, a Kitchen with a range of modern base and eye level unit with wood worktops and including a stainless steel sink unit with mixer tap, built in oven and grill, induction hob and extractor and units ready for integrated refrigerator/freezer and dishwasher. The utility will include a stainless steel sink with mixer tap and units ready for integrated washing machine and dryer or washer/dryer and freezer. The Shower Room and En Suite Shower Room will include a shower unit, wc and wash basin. The floor coverings will be of solid Oak engineered timber and carpets.

OUTSIDE

To the rear of Bee Bole Barn, accessed either from the Entrance Hall or Living Room is a level hedge-enclosed currently low maintenance courtyard and to the front an attractive gated and Cornish hedge enclosed lawn garden – both of which are dog friendly.

At a lower level are further extensive recreational grounds where there is ample space for car parking of numerous cars. In total, Bee Bole Barn extends to about .25 of an acre.

MANAGEMENT COMPANY AND COVENANTS

Bee Bole Barn forms a conversion of one of several traditional barns at Carthew Farm which will ultimately be developed to create a hamlet of around eight good quality residential homes. There will be a Management Company created and drawn up by the Vendors solicitor. and an annual service charge for maintenance and repair of the private bore hole water supply, drainage, vehicular entrance drives, plant house, communal areas and so forth. There will therefore be some covenants.

VIEWING

Strictly and only by prior appointment with Stags' Truro office on 01872 264488.

DIRECTIONS

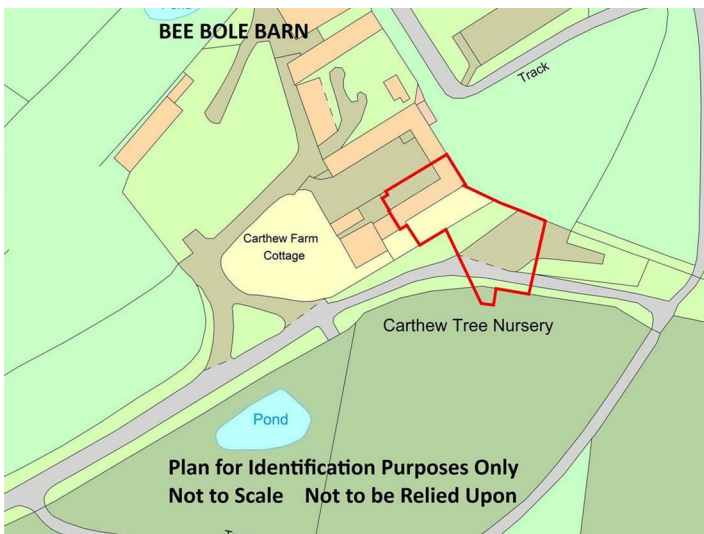

From St Austell take the B3274 towards the China Clay Museum. Drive out of the town passing under the railway viaduct. At Ruddlemoor, pass the entrance to the China Clay Museum on the left and the entrance to Carthew Farm will then be immediately seen on the left-hand side where there is a wide cut granite splayed pillared entrance. Pass the water wheel and continue to the top of the hill. Bear to the right and drive onto the stone lane beyond the gate. Not the access route for Bee Bole Barn when completion, but for viewing purposes, follow the road around to the left, drive to the rear of the house and courtyard entrance for parking will be seen on the right hand side.

SERVICES

Water: private shared bore hole water supply. Electricity: mains electricity to the dwelling and an EV charging point (cable will be laid - purchaser to be responsible for final connections and installing a charger to suit. Drainage: private shared drainage. LPG central heating. Broadband: Fibre optic broadband available. Mobile telephone: 02 and Vodafone likely to be variable indoors and 02, Three, EE and Vodafone good outdoors (Ofcom) – based on adjoining Carthew Farmhouse.

BUILD COMPLETION DATE

It is envisaged that the conversion will be completed around the end May 2026.
