A sizeable and characterful semi-detached Victorian house, situated in a commanding position on a coveted road in Willesden Green. The house offers an exceptional opportunity to acquire a large family home that's a short distance from the award-

The house retains a plethora of original Victorian architectural features throughout, including corncicing, cast-iron fireplaces, picture rails, and skirting. The current owners have implemented an interior scheme that's deeply sympathetic to the original character of the house. The reception room is sizeable, spanning 29ft.

The rear currently has a compartmentalised arrangement and there's scope for an ambitious purchaser to create an expansive kitchen/diner that's distinctly family centric. The garden is mature and secluded, spanning 42ft in length.

The upper floors offer four bedrooms. The principal bedroom has an ensuite shower room and is situated at the front of the First Floor. The remaining three bedrooms are serviced by one family bathroom in the midriff.

Early viewing is thoroughly recommended.
