Photograph disclaimer – In order to capture the features of a particular room we will mostly use wide angle lens photography. This will sometimes distort the image slightly and also has the potential to make a room look larger. Please, therefore, refer also to the room measurements detailed within this Brochure.

A charming double-fronted two-bedroom cottage dating back to 1913, offering an exciting opportunity to update and modernise, with the true highlight found beyond its attractive frontage, a wonderfully private rear retreat featuring a generous lawned garden, mature trees and established shrubs. This characterful home also benefits from a garage, useful brick store and no onward chain, making it an appealing prospect for buyers looking to create something special. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and rear porch, while upstairs offers two bedrooms and a spacious shower room. To the rear, a concrete courtyard provides access to the brick store before opening into the delightful enclosed garden, bordered by fencing and filled with greenery. At the front, a low hedge, central pathway, and established shrubs create an inviting first impression.

Tenure: Freehold. East Riding of Yorkshire Council BAND: B.
