welcome to

Navigation Drive, Apperley Bridge Bradford

A beautifully presented mid-terrace house offering versatile space and featuring three generous double bedrooms, two en suites and a modern house bathroom. Boasting a spacious lounge/diner, contemporary kitchen, private rear garden, plus driveway and garage, all within a highly desirable location.

Apperley Bridge

Apperley Bridge is a highly desirable area situated between Rawdon and Greengates, approximately 9 miles from Leeds City Centre and 5 miles from Bradford City Centre. The village offers a local pub and café, with a wider range of amenities available in nearby Greengates and Idle Village. Regular buses and Apperley Bridge Train Station provide convenient services to Leeds, Bradford, and surrounding areas, making it ideal for commuters. The property is within the catchment area of several well-regarded schools, perfect for families with children, and the prestigious Woodhouse Grove is nearby. The River Aire and canal flow through Apperley Bridge, offering pleasant walks and plenty of green space.

Ground Floor Hallway

Step in through the front door into a welcoming hallway, providing access to a convenient guest WC.

Guest Wc

A practical addition to any busy family home, featuring a convenient WC and hand basin.

Bedroom Three/Family Room

A bright and inviting double bedroom, complete with a private en suite and elegant floor-to-ceiling glazed patio doors that open seamlessly onto the garden.

This room could also be used as a second reception room depending on the buyers needs.

En-Suite

A contemporary en suite shower room, finished with modern tiling, a sleek shower cubicle, WC, and hand basin.

First Floor Lounge/Diner

An elegantly appointed lounge and dining area, bathed in natural light from an impressive large window, creating a refined and inviting space for both relaxation and entertaining.
