appliances, and houses the brand new boiler. From the kitchen, a useful utility area leads through to a downstairs WC, adding to the practicality of the home. Stepping out through the newly installed rear doors, you are greeted by a generous garden laid mainly to lawn. One side of the garden benefits from a charming stone wall, and at the far end there is convenient access to the driveway and garage, offering both parking and storage.

To the first floor, a bespoke solid oak staircase leads to three well proportioned bedrooms, all of which have been fully renovated and feature new doors and windows. The principal bedroom further benefits from a brand new en suite shower room, finished to a high standard. The property benefits from granted planning permission for a rear extension and the construction of a new garage, offering an excellent opportunity for buyers to further enhance and add value to the home. Detailed plans are available upon request, providing scope to extend the existing living accommodation and create a more versatile layout tailored to modern living requirements.

This is a turnkey home that would suit buyers seeking character, quality, and future potential, all within a beautifully finished and thoughtfully upgraded property.
