Acland House occupies an elevated position set in the heart of the sought-after village of Winsford. Winsford is an attractive village, one of the three villages comprising what is known locally as "The Golden Triangle of Exmoor". Winsford sits in the Exe Valley where the River Exe and the Winn Brook meet and there are eight bridges and a ford. It is only a short walk to the parish church, village hall and the famous Royal Oak Inn, which provides an in-house village shop. There are also tennis courts and a cricket pitch in the village.

This impressive detached property is situated in a private small development of three houses. The garden is sunny, peaceful and enjoys charming rural views. The house boasts generous accommodation, providing high quality and well-proportioned contemporary accommodation. A great deal of thought has gone into the design and choice of materials to compliment the house, which include solid oak flooring with an under floor heating system.
