- Modern kitchen and bathroom
- Two wood burners
- Enclosed garden with store/workshop

This three bedroom former school house has wonderful features of the period to include quarry tiled floor, attractive fireplaces and high ceilings but equally modern creature comforts to include: upgraded kitchens, bathrooms and two wood burners and is located within an easy reach of Ludlow's historic town centre and enjoying level gardens, off-road parking for two cars and a useful store/workshop. No onward chain.

Location:

The property sits at the start of Henley Road within an easy walk into Ludlow's historic town centre but equally there are a range of local amenities to include One Stop Shop with Post Office, Café, Chinese takeaway and hairdressers/beautician within a two minute walk.

Accommodation:

The property is approached into an impressive entrance hall with high ceilings and attractive patterned quarry tiled floor, useful under stairs storage cupboard and a Cloakroom with a suite in white of WC and wash hand basin.

There is a cosy living room with wood effect flooring, two windows to frontage and a feature fireplace with flagstone hearth, herringbone brickwork and woodburning stove.

The dining room which is open plan into the kitchen has tiled floor and again a feature fireplace with brick features and woodburning stove, useful cupboards to the side of the chimney breast and window to rear garden. The modern kitchen has a comprehensive range of matching and modern units with a range cooker, integrated dishwasher, washing machine and a free standing fridge freezer which are all included in the sale. This is a lovely light space with three windows, door to rear elevation and a roof window.

The first floor landing feeds three good sized bedrooms all with lovely high ceilings, two of these bedrooms are doubles, the main bedroom sits to the frontage with a lovely view of the Church and across one wall an excellent range of fitted wardrobes together with a pretty fireplace. The second bedroom has fitted storage and cast iron fireplace. There is a well appointed bathroom having a suite in white of WC, pedestal wash hand basin and panelled P- bath with multi head shower over.

Outside:

The property is approached onto a part brick and part gravelled frontage providing parking for two cars. Off here a door opens into a useful store/workshop adjoining the house. The rear garden is fully enclosed by walling and high board fencing aiding privacy, with a paved seating area, gravelled sections and concrete section which makes this a very low maintenance garden.
