Family Home with Self Contained Cottage

Located in a quiet rural setting between St Agnes and Perranporth and with easy access to Truro, Worthy Vale is a substantial period detached home set within approximately 1.5 acres of gardens, grounds and woodland, leading down to a stream. Offered to the market with no onward chain, the property combines flexible accommodation with extensive outdoor space, making it well suited to family living, multi-generational occupation, holiday let or buyers looking for annexe potential.

The main house is arranged around a large L-shaped family living space incorporating the sitting room, dining area and kitchen. Semi open-plan in design, the layout works well for both everyday family life and entertaining, with an open staircase positioned between the sitting and dining areas adding to the character of the space. The kitchen is fitted in a classic shaker style with ample storage, while a wood-burning stove provides a focal point to the sitting area.

In addition to the main living space, there is a separate laundry room and an external utility room providing further practicality. Upstairs, the main house offers three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The interconnected cottage/annexe can function as either fully independent accommodation or as part of one larger home. It benefits from its own staircase, living room and kitchen/dining room on the ground floor, with two bedrooms and a shower room upstairs. With its own entrance, garden, and parking area, the cottage could suit dependent relatives, older children, guest accommodation or potential income use.

Outside, the property continues to offer a huge amount of versatility. The gardens, grounds and woodland extend to around 1.5 acres and include lawned gardens, mature planting, allotment areas and woodland walks alongside a stream. There is also a garden chalet which could be used as a home office, studio or occasional guest accommodation, together with extensive parking, two garages/additional outbuildings.

The property also benefits from 18 solar panels with a feed-in tariff already in place.

Worthy Vale offers a rare combination of adaptable living space, mature grounds and a peaceful setting, while remaining within easy reach of St Agnes, Perranporth, Truro and the north Cornish coast. It is truly perfect for any family looking for their forever home.

Gardens and Woodland

The gardens, grounds and woodland at Worthy Vale are divided into three distinct areas.

Leading directly off the family sitting room/dining room of the main house is the primary family garden, featuring a patio seating area that opens onto a lawned garden with a garden chalet that could also be used as a guest room or home office. Bordered by mature trees, hedging and established flower beds, this is an ideal space for entertaining friends and family.

To the side of the annexe is a pleasant decked seating area and a small lawned garden, offering guests or family members using the annexe their own private outdoor space.

To the rear of the property is a substantial parking area with two garages, leading through to the allotment areas, expansive lawns and beautiful woodland and stream beyond. This whole area is a dream for both children and adults alike, offering a real sense of escapism from everyday life, with space to grow fruit and vegetables, room to play and plenty of areas to simply relax and enjoy the surroundings.

The grounds are a major selling point of this substantial family home and play a huge part in making the property such a special place for the whole family to enjoy.
