The principal reception room has stunning triple aspect views over the garden including both French doors and a Box window to the side elevation. Both the living room and the formal dining room boast wood burning stoves while the kitchen/breakfast room also benefits from dual aspect lighting with windows to the front and rear. Beyond the kitchen is a utility room, cloakroom and a ground floor home office. A door from the utility room opens to a double car width loggia.

The single garage has a separate access with up and over roller doors either end, allowing you to drive through. The garden lies to the rear and side of the house enjoying a southerly aspect. There is a wide expanse of level lawn with a beech hedge and trees on the southern boundary. The garden as a whole has a variety of plants and shrubs, including fruit trees, two garden sheds and an additional vehicular access.
