Property

Pushing open the front door we are welcomed into the impressive sitting/dining room of this charming home. The natural light and feeling of space that flows throughout the home are instantly apparent. Currently used as superbly sized sitting room, the proportions allow to create a dining area if required. A wrought iron fireplace takes centre stage and panelled doors set to either side open to two cupboards. A sash window looks onto the street view where secondary glazing is fitted and bespoke shutters bring a modern take on the original features of the home. A concealed trap door opens to the cellar and we flow open plan into the kitchen/breakfast room. This generous room spans the width of the property and offers a delightful dining area from where the stairs rise to the first floor. White washed beams line the ceiling and the kitchen area offers a range of modern wall and base units set against the contrasting wooden flooring and work surfaces. A fitted dishwasher, oven, hob and extractor feature whilst space is made for a fridge freezer. At the rear an internal door opens to the generous utility room where we find our laundry appliances and gas combination boiler. A second door opens from the kitchen area out to the courtyard gardens. Climbing the stairs to the first floor landing we find the first of the double bedrooms set to the rear of the house. Stepping to the front we pass through the current dressing room which offers a versatile space that leads to both the bathroom and master bedroom. The bathroom offers a white suite comprising a bath with shower and folding screen above, wash basin and w/c. Completing the accommodation the master bedroom offers a fine space that enjoys an original panelled wall and two cupboards set to either side of the fireplace. A window looks onto the street again complemented by attractive shutters.

Outside

From Upper Olland Street we approach this charming red brick home from the wide footpath and via the panelled front door. To the side a covered alley leads us to the rear where we pass a communal area and a gate leads into the private rear courtyard garden. This delightful space enjoys a south/westerly aspect soaked in the afternoon and evening sun. The courtyard is framed with white painted rendered walls, with Chelsea paving under foot. A low set flower bed brings colour and scent to the space which offers the ideal spot for summer entertaining and relaxing. A compact timber shed is in situ providing a storage solution. At the rear of the house a door leads into the kitchen/breakfast room.
