An adjacent pantry/utility room provides further cupboard storage as well as space and plumbing for a washing machine and additional white goods. A wooden door leads down to a ground floor shower room/WC and double bedroom with external door to the garden. Returning to the kitchen/diner, a half staircase leads up to an internal landing with doors to a well-appointed family bathroom, two double bedrooms and a good-sized study/fourth bedroom. From the landing, a further half staircase leads to the beautifully light triple-aspect living room with exceptional panoramic views over the countryside towards Perranporth Golf Course sand dunes and surrounding coastline.

From the generous driveway a stone slab pathway leads around the perimeter of the property to two patio/seating areas from which to take in the tranquil rural setting and absorbing countryside views. The well-maintained gardens offer a good range of established plants and shrubs as well as vegetable patch, pond, aluminium framed greenhouse and storage shed. Additional storage can be found via the attached garage off the driveway which also benefits from power and lighting.

Situation

Located approximately one mile inland from the bustling coastal resort of Perranporth on Cornwall's rugged north coast, the small hamlet of Bolingey combines the very best of the Cornish coastal and country lifestyle. The hamlet is home to the 17th-century Bolingey Inn, known for its inviting atmosphere and hearty meals. Visitors can also enjoy the local flavors at the Black Flag micro-brewery, or spend a leisurely day at the picturesque course fishing lakes nearby. For outdoor enthusiasts, the area offers a network of scenic rural footpaths and bridleways, including the recently opened "Saint's Trail" cycle route, which connects the hamlet to Perranporth and the nearby village of Goonhavern. Perranporth itself offers an excellent range of shops, restaurants, and cafes, as well as of course its glorious three-mile-wide surfing beach. Golf lovers, meanwhile, will appreciate the nearby Perranporth Golf Club, with its exceptional 18-hole links course set against the backdrop of breathtaking coastal views.
