Clubleys give notice that these particulars whilst believed to be accurate are set out as a general outline only for guidance and do not constitute any part of an offer or contract. Intending purchasers or tenants should not rely on them as statements or representation of fact, but must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to their accuracy. No person in the employment of Clubleys has the authority to make or give any representation or warranty in relation to the property.

Photograph disclaimer – In order to capture the features of a particular room we will mostly use wide angle lens photography. This will sometimes distort the image slightly and also has the potential to make a room look larger. Please, therefore, refer also to the room measurements detailed within this Brochure.

Set against open countryside and dating back to the 1840s, this beautifully presented cottage offers a rare blend of period character, practical living and outdoor space. The cosy sitting room centres around a multifuel stove, while the kitchen diner flows seamlessly into a light-filled garden room with French doors opening onto the cottage garden, creating a wonderful connection between inside and out.

Upstairs, two generous bedrooms are complemented by a spacious bathroom with both bath and separate shower. Outside, the charming gardens provide space to relax, entertain and enjoy the surrounding views, with a summer house, timber garage and additional garden area accessed via gated rear access.

Rich in character yet perfectly suited to modern living, this is a home that feels both peaceful and effortlessly welcoming.
