SITUATION

The land is positioned near to Venn Cross in a rural location between Barnstaple, Landkey and Bishops Tawton near the eastern fringes of Barnstaple. There are excellent road links nearby with the A361 (accessible within 1.5 miles) linking with Junction 27 of the M5 motorway.

Barnstaple is the regional centre for north Devon and it's town centre is within 2.5 miles whilst the beaches of Saunton, Croyde, Putsborough and Woolacombe are all within easy reach.

DESCRIPTION

The property includes an agricultural building set within approximately 7.46 acres (3.05 hectares), positioned in a rural yet accessible location near to Barnstaple.

The building measures approximately 14.37m x 14.22m and has a timber frame with timber roof supports and a box profile sheet roof. The elevations are enclosed with timber cladding and timber boards above. There is an earth floor and the building is currently used for storing agricultural machinery and hay.

To the south of the barn there is a stone turning and parking area which is enclosed with post and rail fencing. There are views over the rolling countryside to the south and east. Towards the north-eastern corner of the land are the remains of a derelict cob barn and a second gateway on to Venn Road.

The pasture land is within a single gently sloping field and which is suitable for grazing and mowing and has it's own access on to the road.
