THE PROPERTY

Honeysuckle Cottage is a very attractive and spacious, individual, detached bungalow, set in large private and well stocked gardens onto open fields. It is believed to have been traditionally built in circa 1970, having reconstituted stone elevations. Under the current ownership since 2020, the property has been subject to enlargement and a whole number of improvements, to now provide a very comfortable home.

The many excellent features include gas-fired central heating with updated boiler, traditional timber sealed unit windows, recently installed well equipped kitchen with comprehensive appliances (electric double oven, 5-burner gas hob, cooker hood, washing machine and dishwasher), modern en-suite bathroom and family shower room, polished stone fireplace with multi-fuel stove to the living room, low maintenance Karndean-style flooring and built-in wardrobes to all of the three double bedrooms.

The accommodation is very well presented and enjoys lovely views over the surrounding countryside to the sea beyond and to the National Trust Langdon Hill.

Briefly, comprises entrance porch, reception hall, living room, kitchen/dining room with French outside doors, principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom and walk-in wardrobe/small office, two further bedrooms (or second bedroom plus dining room), shower room.

A further big selling feature of the property are the lovely well stocked gardens, backing onto open fields and, again, enjoying lovely views, the extensive driveway/parking and a detached double garage.

Viewing is strongly recommended by the sole agent, Stags.

OUTSIDE

Honeysuckle Cottage is approached through a five-bar gate onto a long brick paved and gravelled driveway leading to a turning and parking area and detached double garage with twin up and over doors.

Very large south-facing front garden, which is well stocked, comprising areas of lawn interspersed with box hedging, shrubs and a whole variety of apple trees. The rear and side gardens back onto the fields and again down to lawn together with numerous shrubs, paved terrace and timber shed.

SITUATION

Honeysuckle Cottage occupies a lovely private and tucked away position, well set back from the main village road. It faces south towards Thorncombe Beacon and Langdon Hill. It is just a 20 minute walk to the coast at Seatown, to join the Jurassic Coast, the South West Coast Path and an award winning local pub. In addition, using footpaths, it is within easy walking distance of Golden Cap and Thorncombe Beacon. There is also a nest of footpaths that lead to North Chideock, Quarr Hill and Symondsburry. The whole site is within the AONB. The excellent local facilities include a village shop/Post Office, two public houses with restaurants, two churches and a village hall. There are regular bus services to Bridport and Lyme Regis and beyond. The thriving market town of Bridport, with its twice weekly street market, has caught national interest and publicity.
