Substantial double-fronted Victorian detached home, offered to the market with no onward chain and providing 2,000 sq ft of versatile accommodation - Greystones is an attractive stone-built period residence, enjoying a generous five-bedroom layout offering endless potential. This former farmhouse provides a fantastic opportunity to create a welcoming family home that boasts an ideal position in the heart of Congresbury village. The ground floor is accessed via a welcoming entrance hall with Victorian style patterned tiled flooring, setting the tone for the period charm found throughout. To the front, there are two impressive bay fronted reception rooms, both enjoying generous proportions and excellent natural light. The sitting room provides a comfortable principal reception space, while the dining room offers an ideal setting for family occasions or entertaining. To the rear, the layout opens into a sociable kitchen and breakfast arrangement, with the kitchen fitted with a range of wall and base cabinets and positioned close to the breakfast room, creating a practical everyday living space. A useful boot room, utility room and cloakroom WC add further practicality to the ground floor. To the first floor, the property continues to impress with five bedrooms arranged around a central landing, together with a family bathroom and Jack and Jill en-suite facility serving two of the bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a generous room with fitted wardrobe storage, while the remaining bedrooms offer excellent flexibility for children, guests, home working or continued rental use if desired.

Externally, Greystones enjoys a good-sized plot with garden and parking facilities that complement the scale of the house. The garden is arranged with areas laid to lawn and stone, creating a manageable yet appealing outdoor space suitable for seating, children's play or further landscaping. The stone-built elevations give the property a strong sense of character and presence, while the outside space provides scope for buyers to enjoy as it is or enhance further over time. Further benefits include off-street parking available for numerous vehicles to the side of the property.

Brinsea Road is a well-regarded position within Congresbury, a popular North Somerset village offering a strong sense of community and a wide range of everyday amenities. The village provides shops, cafes, public houses, a doctors' surgery, pharmacy and primary schooling, while nearby Yatton offers a mainline railway station with regular services towards Bristol, Bath and London Paddington. The surrounding countryside, Congresbury Yeo and nearby Strawberry Line offer excellent opportunities for walking and cycling, while Clevedon, Weston-super-Mare and Bristol are all within reach. Road links via the A370 and M5 motorway network provide further convenience for commuters. Offered with no onward chain, Greystones represents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial Victorian detached home with character, flexible accommodation, parking and garden space in a highly convenient village location.
