Occupying an exceptional plot, approximately an acre, in a quiet backwater of the picturesque village of Kingston Seymour, this substantial detached bungalow offers almost 3,000 square foot of versatile accommodation surrounded by open countryside. Enjoying a peaceful and secluded setting, the property presents a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious family home with flexibility for multi-generational living, while remaining close to popular local amenities including Tiffin Café, The Pear Orchard and the village hall, which hosts a variety of community events throughout the year.

The accommodation is currently arranged to provide dual occupation, making it an ideal solution for extended families or elderly relatives, although it can be easily reconfigured to function as one impressive six-bedroom residence. Every bedroom is generously proportioned to accommodate a double bed, while the principal bedroom benefits from an en suite. Two further bathrooms serve the remaining accommodation, and excellent storage is provided throughout the home.

The property's generous layout also offers exciting scope for further enhancement or extension, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Outside, the grounds have been thoughtfully designed to create two attractive and enclosed garden areas, ideal for relaxing or entertaining, with direct access through to an adjoining field beyond. Extensive gravel driveways provide off-road parking for at least five vehicles, and solar panels contribute towards the property's efficiency.

Combining extensive living space, outstanding versatility and a stunning rural setting, this is a fantastic opportunity for families seeking a peaceful village lifestyle with ample room to grow.

A substantial detached bungalow set within approximately an acre, offering versatile multi-generational living in a peaceful countryside setting.
