Situated in the heart of Membury, a welcoming village with a primary school, church and hall within walking distance, this property enjoys the beauty of the Blackdown Hills National Landscape. Countryside walks are on the doorstep, while Axminster station, shops and supermarkets are just 10 minutes away. The Jurassic Coast, including Sidmouth, Beer and Lyme Regis, is easily reached by car.

A charming stone and slate cottage requiring modernisation, the home features a sitting room with inglenook fireplace and log burner, a dining room with exposed stone walls, and a ground floor cloakroom. The kitchen offers ample units and utility space, leading to a wraparound conservatory overlooking the garden. Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms and a large family bathroom (part flying freehold).

Outside, gardens of nearly one-third acre wrap around the property, with lawns, patio, mature borders, greenhouse, store and double garage. Parking for several vehicles is via a shared private drive.

Planning permission (23/1916/FUL) allows for a first-floor extension creating two additional bedrooms.

Services: Mains water, electric and drainage. Oil fired central heating with a modern double banded oil tank. Mobile signal is variable outside with selected networks, up to superfast broadband is available via Openreach (information via Ofcom). PV Panels with higher rate FIT of approx. £600-£1000 per year.
