This lovely one-bedroom flat sits on the raised ground floor, offering around 470 sq ft of well-balanced living space that feels both cosy and bright. Thanks to those large bay windows at the front, natural light pours in throughout the day, giving the whole place an airy, uplifting feel.

Location-wise, you're in a fantastic spot just a short five-minute stroll from Richmond Bridge. From here, you can wander along the river, grab a coffee, or explore all the independent shops and eateries nearby. It's a brilliant balance of peaceful living with plenty going on around you, making it easy to picture yourself settling in and really enjoying everything the area has to offer.
