Station Road, Brighton

Stylish Victorian 2/3 bed home opposite a leafy embankment, offering flexible living, open fires, a private walled garden, spacious bathroom and utility room. A true commuter's dream with scope to enhance or extend (stnc). CHAIN FREE!

A beautifully appointed Victorian home offering exceptional access to Brighton, Hove, Gatwick and London, positioned directly opposite the leafy embankment of Preston Park Station. With excellent local permit parking and a notably private walled garden backing onto uninterrupted greenery, this 2/3 bedroom property combines period charm with rare seclusion and superb convenience.

Arranged over three floors, this home provides flexible living space ideal for modern lifestyles. The raised ground floor reception room-equally suited as a guest bedroom-features an attractive open fire, while the generous lower ground living/dining level offers a second open fire and direct access to the garden. A separate kitchen sits adjacent, creating a sociable yet practical layout, complemented by a sizeable utility room and a well proportioned family bathroom positioned centrally within the home.

On the upper floor, two spacious double bedrooms offer comfortable accommodation, with scope for further expansion subject to consent. Neighbouring homes have extended into the attic, added upper floor cloakrooms or created additional bedrooms and terraces above the kitchen, highlighting the potential available here (stnc). The split level landing overlooks the private rear garden.

Combining elegant period detail with impressive privacy, excellent transport connectivity and clear opportunities for future enhancement, this is an outstanding home in a highly sought after location.
