The property has been extensively updated and thoughtfully improved throughout, creating a stylish and beautifully presented home.

The modern kitchen features contemporary units and integrated appliances and opens seamlessly into the light and airy living room, forming an attractive open-plan space ideal for everyday living. A fully refurbished bathroom adds to the home's appeal, while the principal bedroom is particularly spacious, complemented by a well-proportioned second double bedroom.

Further benefits include a long lease, no ground rent, and the advantage of no onward chain. The flat is conveniently located within easy reach of Maidenhead town centre with its excellent selection of shops, restaurants and bars, as well as the mainline station offering fast links into London.
