Stowmarket

Stowmarket is a charming market town that beautifully blends historical allure with modern amenities. Known for its picturesque landscapes and welcoming community, this quaint town offers a perfect balance of rural tranquillity and urban convenience.

The town is home to several historic landmarks, including the magnificent St. Peter and St. Mary's Church and the Food Museum, which offers a fascinating glimpse into the region's past. The town centre retains its traditional charm, with a delightful mix of period architecture and modern buildings.

Regular local events, farmer's markets, and community gatherings foster a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere. The town's vibrant cultural scene includes theatres, art galleries, and musical performances that cater to diverse tastes and interests.

Stowmarket is well-connected, making it an attractive location for commuters. The town's railway station offers frequent services to London, Cambridge, and Norwich, ensuring that residents can easily access major cities for work or leisure. Additionally, the nearby A14 provides convenient road links to the rest of the country.

The town offers a variety of amenities, supermarkets, and a range of local shops and boutiques. Stowmarket's educational facilities are highly regarded, with several primary and secondary schools available to residents. Additionally, healthcare services are readily accessible, with local clinics and a hospital nearby.

Violet Hill Road

Discover the charm and convenience of this delightful semi-detached home, perfectly situated within walking distance of Stowmarket's bustling town centre. This property offers a blend of functional design and comfort, making it an ideal choice for families and professionals alike.

The main floor features an entrance hall welcoming you inside, with stairs leading to the first floor and a handy understairs cupboard for additional storage.
