SITUATION

Nestled along the World Heritage Jurassic Coast, in the East Devon National Landscape, Beer is a charming, unspoiled Devon fishing village with a rich history and recent named one of England's favourite villages. Its quarried stone, used in iconic structures like Exeter Cathedral and St Paul's Cathedral, has been used extensively in this amazing character home.

The village offers shops, restaurants, pubs, galleries, a primary school, and a sailing club. Scenic country and coastal walks, including the 80-mile South West Peninsula Coastal Path, offer stunning views of the ancient coastline.

Sidmouth, 8 miles west, is a larger coastal town with parks, shops, a cinema, and theatre. Exeter, 25 miles away, provides excellent shopping, a university, a rail link to London, and an international airport. Colyton Grammar School, one of the UK's top state schools, is just 4.5 miles away.

DIRECTIONS

From the centre of the village, head up the hill, continue up New Road after the tight right bend for about 300 yards where the driveway to East Croft will be found on your left-hand side before you go out of the village. Proceed up the drive and the property can be found on the right hand side with parking to the front.
