Folksworth is a small, peaceful village in Cambridgeshire, located about 5-7 miles southwest of Peterborough. It's known for its picturesque countryside, traditional cottages, and strong sense of community. With around 500 residents, the village offers a tranquil rural atmosphere alongside practical amenities such as a primary school and village hall. Its history dates back to the Domesday Book, and today it remains a popular spot for walking, cycling, and enjoying the surrounding Cambridgeshire landscape.
