SITUATION

Yew Tree Granary enjoys an elevated rural setting within the Blackdown Hills National Landscape, with far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside. Situated between Yarcombe, Upottery and Churchinford, the property offers the perfect balance of seclusion and accessibility, with convenient access to the A303, Honiton, Taunton and Exeter. The nearby villages have a public house and village halls, Upottery has a primary school, and Churchinford a community-run shop and nursery. The nearby market town of Honiton has direct rail links to London Waterloo.

ACCOMMODATION

Yew Tree Granary is an attractive and substantial stone barn conversion, thoughtfully extended and beautifully maintained to provide spacious and versatile accommodation. A welcoming entrance hall leads to a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room with granite worktops, integrated appliances and a breakfast bar, together with a dining room, utility room and cloakroom.

The light-filled sitting room enjoys a wood-burning stove and view over the garden, whilst the ground floor principal bedroom suite benefits from a walk-in wardrobe, en suite shower room and door to the garden. On the first floor are three further double bedrooms, including one with an en suite shower room, together with a family bathroom. All first floor bedrooms benefit from stunning views across the countryside an valley beyond.

OUTSIDE

To the front is ample parking and a double garage/workshop with storage above. The west-facing rear garden is principally laid to lawn with a fantastic raised terrace and decking, enjoying excellent privacy and delightful views across adjoining farmland. At the bottom of the garden is a detached insulated studio with power and light, currently used as a gym which provides excellent ancillary space for a variety of uses.
