Offered with no onward chain, this freehold first-floor apartment combines a central location with the rare advantage of private parking and an integral garage, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, professionals, investors, or those looking to downsize without compromise. The accommodation is well planned and easy to enjoy, centred around a spacious open-plan living area. The fitted kitchen is neatly positioned along one wall, leaving ample space for both relaxing and dining. A generous double bedroom and a well-appointed bathroom complete the accommodation. A real standout feature is the integral garage, which can be accessed both internally and externally, providing secure parking as well as excellent storage space, a rarity for an apartment. Conveniently positioned close to a range of local amenities, this practical, low-maintenance freehold home is ready to move straight into.
