Set within a popular and welcoming retirement development, this attractive second-floor apartment offers comfortable accommodation, a peaceful setting and a wonderful outlook over the communal gardens. A particular highlight is the private balcony, accessed directly from the living room, providing a lovely space to sit and enjoy the beautifully maintained surroundings.

The property is entered via an entrance hall, which benefits from a useful built-in storage cupboard and provides access to the accommodation. The main living and dining room is a bright and comfortable space, with access to the separate kitchen and balcony. The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and floor units, providing a practical space for everyday cooking.

The bedroom is a comfortable room with built-in storage, while the bathroom is conveniently positioned and includes a bath with separate shower, WC and wash hand basin.

Outside, the private balcony is undoubtedly one of the property's key features, overlooking the communal gardens and creating a tranquil spot to relax or enjoy a morning coffee. Residents can also enjoy the wider communal grounds and facilities offered by the development.

The development provides a communal lounge with kitchenette, ideal for socialising and taking part in activities, along with a visitor suite and parking available on a first-come, first-served basis. There is lift access, an in-house laundry room operated on a rota basis, 24-hour emergency pull cords and a full-time on-site house manager, providing reassurance and support when required.

The property is also conveniently positioned within a level walk of Nailsea Town Centre, offering easy access to a range of local amenities and everyday conveniences.

Overall, this is a lovely one-bedroom retirement apartment offering comfortable living, excellent storage and the added benefit of a beautiful private balcony overlooking the communal gardens. It provides an appealing balance of independence and community.

“A beautifully positioned retirement apartment with a private balcony overlooking the communal gardens.”
