DESCRIPTION

Meadow Barn forms part of an small exclusive development of 3 new barn conversions. Situated at the far end of the development, the property has been thoughtfully designed to offer high specification and to provide low maintenance energy efficient living while maximising the natural light and panoramic countryside views.

The accommodation includes from the front porch, a door opens into a welcoming entrance hall and practical utility room. From here, the home flows into a bright and spacious open plan living/dining space and kitchen with integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher, Neff double ovens and warming drawer. Beyond the main living area, a private hallway leads you to 4 generously sized double bedrooms, 2 with en suites, a stylish family bathroom plus the principle suite benefits from the added luxury of a dressing room and fitted Sharp wardrobes.

SITUATION

The property is located above the hamlet of Kerswell and on the edge of the Blackdown Hills. The property offers both rural tranquillity while remaining highly accessible, just minutes from the M5 and Tiverton Parkway Station (London Paddington Line).

OUTSIDE

Approached via a shared driveway, this home benefits from an extensive parking area conveniently located at the front of the property. To the side, the patio doors open out onto a large private south facing patio and landscaped garden creating an idyllic space for entertaining friends and family. Beyond the main garden, there is an additional adjoining paddock for recreational activities.

DIRECTIONS

From the M5 junction 28, take Honiton Road (A373) towards Honiton. Continue for just under 3 miles until you get to the Keepers Cottage Inn on your right, take the next left onto Broad Road. After about 1 mile, take the righthand turn signposted Broadhembury/Kerswell and then take the next right turn. You will reach the development, located on the left.
