A rare opportunity to lease a charming and secluded rural workshop/studio situated just a stone's throw from Upper Broughton, on the Nottinghamshire and Leicestershire border.

Set within an attractive countryside location, this characterful detached building provides an inspiring and peaceful environment suitable for a variety of commercial, creative and educational uses (subject to any necessary consents).

The property benefits from mains electricity (included within the rent) and offers an ideal retreat for those seeking a quiet working environment away from the distractions of town and city locations.

SUITABLE USES

The workshop would lend itself to a wide range of uses, including:

- Art and painting studio
- Craft workshops
- Tuition and teaching classes
- Reading groups and educational sessions
- Writers' retreat
- Creative design workspace
- Hobby and artisan production
- Wellness or mindfulness workshops (subject to requirements)

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation comprises a detached single-storey workshop/studio of traditional construction with:

- Character brick and timber-clad elevations
- Pitched tiled roof
- Natural light via side windows
- Electricity connected
- Quiet and private rural setting
- Access to WC facilities located approximately 100 metres from the building

LOCATION

The property occupies a secluded countryside position close to Upper Broughton, offering excellent access to the surrounding villages and the wider East Midlands road network whilst retaining a peaceful rural atmosphere.

The location provides an attractive environment for creative, educational and workshop-based businesses seeking a distinctive setting.
