Set within a cul-de-sac, this semi-detached bungalow offers well-proportioned accommodation, an enclosed rear garden and useful off-street parking, making it an appealing choice for those looking to downsize. The property is conveniently positioned close to riverbank walks, Tesco and local transport links, while also being offered for sale with no onward chain.

A glazed porch opens into the hallway, where a useful storage cupboard provides practical everyday space. The modern fitted kitchen has room for a small table, while the adjoining living room benefits from a box window overlooking the front garden. From the rear of the living room, an inner hall provides access to the bathroom, both bedrooms and a further storage cupboard. Bedroom two has double doors opening directly onto the rear garden, creating a particularly useful connection.

To the front, a low-maintenance garden provides an attractive approach to the property, with a driveway running alongside and leading to the single garage. The enclosed rear garden is well established, featuring a selection of mature plants and several patio areas providing plenty of opportunity for outdoor seating and entertaining. A timber shed is positioned in one corner, providing additional storage.

Overall, this is a practical and manageable bungalow in a convenient residential setting. Its combination of single-level accommodation, private outside space, garage and driveway, together with its cul-de-sac position and absence of an onward chain, makes it well suited to those seeking a straightforward move close to everyday amenities and pleasant riverside walks.

“A well-positioned bungalow offering easy, single-level living with a private garden and excellent everyday convenience.”
