THE PROPERTY

Built in the late 1920's, these charming cottages are situated about a mile from the historic market town of Arundel in a small rural hamlet in Warningcamp.

Inside the property is entered via a small entrance hall with a door immediately to the right leading into the spacious sitting room with period features including Dado rail, cornicing, ceiling rose and feature arts & crafts style open fire, with window and views to front. Off the sitting room a door leads through to the kitchen/diner with space for kitchen table to the left and modern fitted kitchen to the right with matching base and wall mounted units, sink and drainer and space for appliances. To the rear of the kitchen a door leads through to the conservatory, which also has space and plumbing for washer/dryer and access onto the rear garden terrace.

To the first floor there are two bedrooms both with views to front over farmland and surrounding countryside. A modern refitted family shower room with large walk-in shower, dual sinks and low-level WC, completes the internal accommodation.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property there is a level lawn screened to one side by mature hedging. The storage at the front is a purpose built log store for the fully functioning open fire in the lounge.

To the rear, there is a generous, paved seating area, ideal for al fresco dining leading onto a well screened level lawn area. To the rear of the garden there is a further circular paved seating area specifically designed to enjoy the stunning views over adjoining farmland and views of Arundel Castle and Cathedral beyond. The property also benefits from an allocated parking space. With Arundel Station nearby offering direct access to Central London, this property offers the best of both worlds.

SITUATION

Warningcamp is a wonderfully tiny village in the shadow of Arundel Castle and home to little more than 100 people. It was first known as a farming settlement back in the days of William the Conqueror. It is now a quiet little hamlet towards the east of Arundel and is easily missed by people visiting the city. Warningcamp has many walks, bridleways and mountain bike routes to explore.
