Offered to the market with no onward chain, this well-proportioned one-bedroom ground floor apartment is tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac location in Fleet. Occupying a desirable first floor position within a purpose-built development in Ancells Farm, this spacious one-bedroom apartment is presented in good decorative order throughout and offers an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, investors and downsizers alike.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a generous living room featuring an attractive bay window that floods the space with natural light, a well-proportioned double bedroom, a fitted kitchen and a bathroom suite.

The development benefits from well-maintained communal areas, while externally the property enjoys an allocated parking space together with additional visitor parking.

Chestnut Close is a popular residential setting, conveniently located for Fleet town centre, local shops, and mainline railway links. Ancells Farm offers a range of local amenities including a convenience store, takeaway options, a public house, and well-regarded schooling nearby, making day-to-day living highly convenient. The area is also close to a number of scenic walking routes and open spaces, including Fleet Pond Nature Reserve, which provides beautiful surroundings for leisure and outdoor activities.

Fleet is ideally situated for access to the M3 and other major road links, along with its mainline station providing fantastic rail links to Waterloo, Basingstoke and Southampton. The local bus service also offers links to the surrounding towns of Farnborough, Aldershot and Farnham. Easy access to surrounding countryside including Fleet pond nature reserve, a notable beauty spot. In addition to the town's desirable location, contributes to why Fleet has recently been voted the best place to live in the UK by the Halifax quality of life study, and making Fleet a popular choice for families and commuters alike.
