The light, bright entrance hall gives access into the front reception room - a lovely room with high ceilings and lots of character. There is a lovely 15' fitted kitchen with access into the dining room, a bright room with lots of natural light and the family room with its feature fireplace and to the rear of the house, there is a utility room and a shower room. Access into the garden is directly from the dining room and utility room.

Upstairs, the two double bedrooms have feature fireplaces and there is a good size single bedroom and completing this floor is the modern family bathroom. There are stairs leading to the bonus loft room, ideal for visiting family or friends.

Outside, there is a good size rear garden, well maintained and mainly laid to lawn with patio areas at both ends of the garden with the rear patio having a pagoda with attractive over-hanging flora. There is residents parking on the road.
