Character, flexibility and countryside living in one exceptional home - Offering a distinctive blend of character, flexibility and modern family living, Walford Lodge enjoys pleasant rural views while benefiting from convenient access to the A49. The property combines attractive period-style features with thoughtful updates, including acoustic double glazing to the front, helping to reduce road noise. Generous glazing brings natural light throughout, while the landscaped gardens provide an exceptional outdoor setting with a pond, decking, growing area, polytunnel and automated watering system, all set within 0.24 Acres. A versatile additional outdoor living space provides excellent scope for home working, hobbies or independent use. The property also offers extensive parking and considerable flexibility for multi-generational living or creating a self-contained element.

The ground floor provides a superb combination of character and practical living space. The open-plan kitchen, living, office and dining area features attractive stone flooring, solid oak worktops and a comprehensive range of Neff appliances, with rear door access to the courtyard. A Villager log burner and dual-aspect windows create a welcoming focal point, while the additional sitting room benefits from dual-aspect windows, double doors opening to the rear and a feature brick fireplace. The hallway has stained pine flooring, complemented by a downstairs bathroom with walk-in shower and Jacuzzi bath. There is also potential to create a self-contained portion of the property, subject to the necessary requirements.

The upper floors provide excellent flexibility, with three bedrooms reached via one staircase on the first floor, including a versatile dressing room with built-in wardrobes. The recently updated upstairs bathroom features tiled flooring, dual shower facilities and Aqua panelling. Built-in storage is available, with additional eaves storage providing useful space. Two further bedrooms are located on the upper level, both enjoying built-in storage, while one benefits from a Velux window. Excellent views and a pleasant rural outlook add to the appeal of the bedrooms.

The landscaped gardens are a particular feature, enjoying sunshine throughout the day and incorporating a pond, decking area, vegetable and growing section, polytunnel and automated watering system. A larger storage shed and lean-to shed provide practical storage, with gated access from the courtyard to the rear. There is also a versatile additional outdoor living space/home office with shower room, WC, sink and double-glazed windows. The driveway offers substantial parking, with space for up to nine vehicles when the gate is opened.
