ABOUT THE HOME

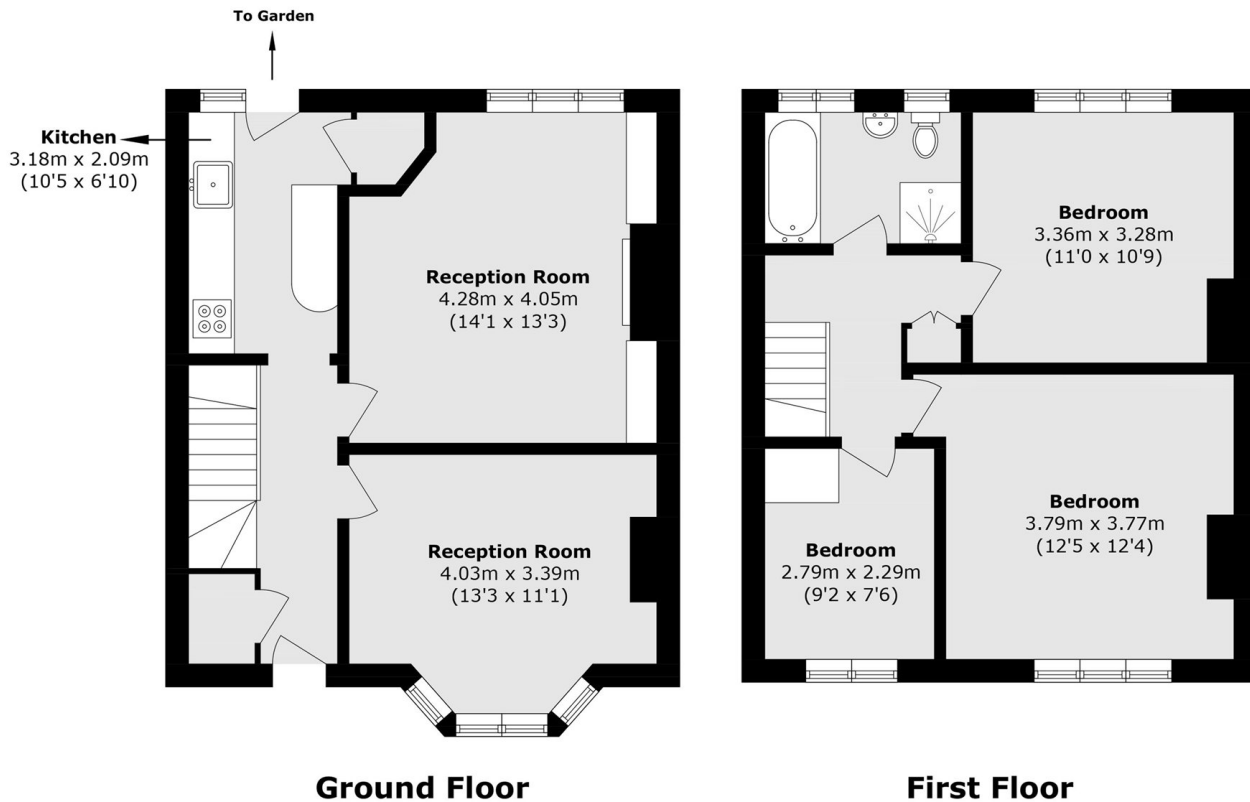

A well-proportioned three bedroom terraced family house featuring a large private rear garden and off-street paved parking.

Accommodation comprises; two spacious reception rooms including a front dining room with a bay window, and a bright main living room. To the rear, a separate fitted kitchen opens directly out to a expansive paved patio and lawned garden with a shed. The first floor hosts two double bedrooms with built-in storage, a third single bedroom ideal as a nursery or home office, and a family bathroom.

The property is situated on Lidiard Road, a desirable residential street close to the green open spaces of Wandsworth Common and King George's Park. Excellent transport links are nearby via Earlsfield mainline station and Southfields underground station (District Line), providing convenient connections into Central London alongside the local shops, cafes, and amenities of Garratt Lane.
