Despite its wonderfully private setting, the property is conveniently located approximately 1½ miles from the village of Burrington, whilst the popular town of Chulmleigh (about 5 miles) offers an excellent range of everyday amenities including shops, cafés, a health centre and schooling to secondary level. The well-balanced and versatile accommodation extends to approximately 2,680 sq ft and is arranged over two floors. The welcoming reception hall leads to the principal reception rooms, all of which enjoy attractive outlooks over the gardens and surrounding countryside. The impressive KITCHEN/BREAKFAST ROOM forms the heart of the home and is fitted with an extensive range of bespoke units, complemented by a Rayburn and ample space for informal dining. Adjoining the kitchen is a delightful CONSERVATORY overlooking the gardens, whilst the elegant SITTING ROOM, with its impressive inglenook fireplace and wood-burning stove, provides a wonderfully comfortable principal reception room. Further ground floor accommodation includes a formal DINING ROOM, further CONSERVATORY, SNUG, STUDY, UTILITY/BOOT ROOM and CLOAKROOM.

The gardens and grounds are undoubtedly one of Lower Braggammarsh House's most outstanding features, having been beautifully designed and meticulously maintained over many years. Immediately surrounding the house are extensive paved terraces providing superb seating and entertaining areas, perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the spectacular views across the Taw Valley. The formal gardens comprise walled areas, sweeping lawns, well-stocked herbaceous borders, mature specimen trees, ornamental shrubs and established climbers, creating colour and interest throughout the seasons. A delightful wildlife pond, productive greenhouse and kitchen garden further enhance the appeal, whilst meandering pathways lead through enchanting areas of woodland garden to a lower level of bog garden with a gently flowing stream, offering a haven for wildlife. In all, the grounds provide an exceptional degree of privacy, tranquillity and natural beauty, complementing the property's idyllic rural setting.
