A well-proportioned three-bedroom terraced home, positioned within a popular residential cul-de-sac on the southern fringes of Clevedon. As the name suggests, Streamside sits alongside the Land Yeo, with an open aspect to the rear and a pleasant outlook towards Court Woods. The combination of flexible accommodation, attractive outside space and convenient access to local amenities makes this an appealing home for families and those looking for a well-connected setting.

A welcoming entrance porch opens into the living area, with the accommodation continuing through to a dining room and kitchen at the rear. Both enjoy views over the garden, while the dining area provides direct access outside. Also on the ground floor is a useful separate study, ideal for home working or as a quiet additional reception space, together with a utility area and cloakroom. Upstairs, the landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the rear-facing rooms benefiting from views towards Court Woods. The family bathroom completes the first floor.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden provides a lovely private space, with established planting and several areas arranged for seating and alfresco dining. A rear gate opens directly onto a green area, providing access to connecting footpaths and making the surrounding environment particularly enjoyable for walking and outdoor activities. The front of the property is approached via the residential cul-de-sac, with a driveway leading to the entrance.

The property is situated towards the southern fringes of Clevedon, with local amenities, transport links and access to the M5 all within easy reach. Clevedon's coastal setting, open countryside and range of schools, shops and facilities further add to the appeal.

A well-balanced combination of space, outlook and location, with the river and open aspect to the rear providing a particularly attractive feature.

“A well-positioned family home with an open outlook, flexible living space and a garden designed for relaxed outdoor living.”
