Petit Tor, Norrels Drive, East Horsley, Surrey, KT24 5DL

Petit Tor is a thoughtfully extended, five bedroom, four bathroom family home situated in a quiet private road near East Horsley village and station.

THE PROPERTY Petit Tor is an extended and comprehensively refurbished five-bedroom family residence situated on a quiet, private road within walking distance of East Horsley village and station. The ground floor opens into a welcoming entrance hall with genuine marble flooring, leading to a study, a lounge with a woodburning stove, and a utility room. Designed for modern living, the ground-floor layout offers clear potential for conversion into a self-contained annexe. At the rear, an expansive contemporary kitchen and family room serves as the central hub, fully equipped with premium appliances, marble worktops, and integrated audio.

The upper floor accommodates an exceptional 430 square foot principal suite featuring a mirrored walk-in wardrobe and a luxurious marble en-suite bathroom. A second en-suite bedroom and three additional double bedrooms provide ample accommodation for a growing family. Outside, the property features a large gravel driveway, an integrated single garage, and a secluded rear garden. The outdoor space includes a split-level ceramic-tiled patio for outdoor entertaining, a private lawn, and a separate garden cabin currently configured as a home gym. Additionally, the property benefits from planning permission held in perpetuity to construct a rear orangery. Council Tax Band G
