

32, Cross Street, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK11 7PG

Situated on Cross Street, within comfortable walking distance of Macclesfield town centre and the railway station, this well-presented two-bedroom mid-terraced property offers a convenient and practical home in an established residential setting. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises a living room, a newly fitted kitchen and rear porch to the ground floor, with two bedrooms and a newly fitted bathroom to the first floor. Further benefits include gas-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout.

To the rear, the property has access to a pleasant shared courtyard, shared with just one other property, offering a useful outdoor space with a good degree of privacy.

Ideally suited to first-time buyers, investors or those looking for a conveniently located home close to the town centre, the property is well placed for a wide range of shops, restaurants and everyday amenities, with excellent transport links and Macclesfield railway station also within easy walking distance.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.
