Bookham village offers a range of local shops including a supermarket, doctors and dentist surgeries, a library and a number of other independent retailers. Bookham station is within walking distance and provides a commuter service into London Waterloo and Victoria. The M25 can be reached at junction 9 Leatherhead giving good motorway access to both Gatwick and Heathrow airports. Surrounding the village is miles of open countryside much of which is National Trust owned. There are excellent schools close by both in the state and private sector including the well renowned Howard of Effingham secondary school.

The popular towns of Cobham, only approx 5 miles away and Guildford approx 11 miles away offer a good variety of shops and restaurants.
