Situation

Thurlestone is an attractive village close to Devon's spectacular coastline, within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. A short stroll leads to Thurlestone Sands, the iconic Thurlestone Rock, the popular Beach House café and Thurlestone Marsh. The village has a thriving community, with a popular primary school, village hall, shop and post office, pub and church, as well as its own book exchange housed in a converted BT telephone box. The Thurlestone Hotel offers excellent leisure facilities, including a spa, indoor and outdoor swimming pools, alongside a superb 18-hole links golf course. The nearby market town of Kingsbridge provides a wider range of amenities, including shops, schools, a health centre, leisure centre, library and churches.

Description

The Downs offers a rare opportunity to acquire a superb home all on one level.
