GARDENS AND GROUNDS

The farmhouse and associated outbuildings are situated within approximately 28.73 acres of land. Surrounding the principal farmhouse and outbuildings, the land benefits from a south-easterly aspect and rises on a gentle incline. Part of the holding is divided into a number of smaller paddocks. Historically used for haymaking and grazing, the land has remained unmanaged for several years and has since been allowed to rewild. The ground is readily mowable and is considered to offer potential for amenity, agricultural or equestrian use, subject to any necessary consents.
