Situation
Birch Park is is a pleasant and elevated position about half a mile from the village of Burrington and enjoys a superb and far-reaching outlook over rolling hills and the Taw Valley to Dartmoor in the distance. Burrington has a village shop and church, there is also a very active village hall and all weather sports facilities.
The thriving small town of Chulmleigh is about 3 miles away and offers a good range of local shops and amenities including medical centre, dentist, library and primary and secondary schooling. The market town of South Molton is about 11 miles and offers a more comprehensive range of facilities. The North Devon regional centre of Barnstaple is about 13 miles. Exeter lies about 25 miles to the south east.
There are nearby railway stations on the Barnstaple to Exeter (Tarka) line at Eggesford and Kings Nympton. The M5 motorway is within easy travelling distance at Junction 27, where there is also a mainline station at Tiverton Parkway.

Description
Birch Park is a charming three-bedroom semi-detached country home, occupying a generous plot in an attractive rural setting on the outskirts of Burrington. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation, including a sitting room with an attractive stone fireplace and wood-burning stove, together with a kitchen incorporating a solid-fuel Rayburn. On the first floor are two good-sized double bedrooms and a further single bedroom, all enjoying far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside. Outside, the property benefits from an enclosed garden and orchard, together with a courtyard providing parking and access to a useful range of traditional stone and brick outbuildings, offering excellent storage and potential for alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents. Whilst requiring a degree of modernisation and improvement, Birch Park represents an appealing opportunity to acquire a rural home with considerable scope and potential.

Accommodation
The front door and enclosed porch leads into an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. The sitting room has a stone fireplace with a wood-burning stove and timber mantel, together with a useful walk-in understairs storage cupboard. The kitchen is fitted with a range of older units and incorporates a solid-fuel Rayburn providing cooking and domestic hot water. A rear hall provides access to a shelved pantry and the bathroom, fitted with a panelled bath, pedestal wash basin and WC. A further door from the kitchen leads into an enclosed UPVC side porch/boot room, with an opening into the adjoining ground-floor storage area of the barn.

On the first floor, a galleried landing gives access to two generous double bedrooms and a further single bedroom, all enjoying far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside.

Outside
To the front is a lawned garden, mainly enclosed by an attractive stone wall. To the side is a gated, concrete driveway and courtyard providing parking. Around the courtyard is a useful range of traditional stone/cob and brick outbuildings, offering excellent garaging, storage and workshop space with potential for alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents. Beyond the courtyard, the gardens extend to include areas of lawn and a greenhouse.
